Construction of a building for Punjab National Hank in Bhikaji Caina Place

*199. SHRI RAMACHANDRA BHARADWAJ; SHRIMATI MAIMOONA SULTAN:

Will the Minister of FINANCE be plea-ed to state:

(.a) whether it is a fact that the Punjab National Bank had to pay over Rs. 80 lakhs to the DDA for regularuation of its building in Bhikaji Cama Place in New Delhi which was consctructed without proper sanction of the competent authority; and

(b) whether Government have made any inquiry into trie matter to fix responsibility for this avoidable heavy financial burden, if so, what are the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI JANARDHAN POOJARI): (a) According to the Punjab National Bank, DDA had demanded a sum of Rs. 80,69,220/- as compounding fee for regularising the permLsi-ble construction at Plot No. 7, Bhikaji Cama Place, New Delhi. The Bank represented to DDA that the compounding fee was not leviable as the Bank had duly submitted all papers required by DDA except the copy of the lease deed which coud not be executed because of DDA's inability to prodece/provide the same. It was also represented to DDA that as the Plans submitted by the Bank were neither rejected nor refusal thereof conveyed within 60 days, as per DDA's by-laws, the Bank deemed the plans to have been sanctioned.

Finally, the DDA levied the penalty of Rs. 4,03,461/- for construction done prior to sanction. The Bank has paid the penalty amount as it did not want to contest the matter further.

(b) No, Sir.

(b) whether any such survey has ever been conducted at the othce premises of M/s D. K. Agencies, Inderlok, In Nagai, Delhi and M|s Researchco, Shanti Nagar, Delhi-35;

(c) if so, what is the outcome of the survey; and

(d) if the answer to part (a) above be in the negative what steps Government propose to take to safeguard the interests of the poor workers in such officer/industries?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF LABOUR (SHRI P. A. SANGMA); (a) Yes, Section 19 of the Minimum Wages Act, 1948 empowers the appropriate Government to appoint such persons as it thinks fit to be inspectors for the purposes of the Act and define the local limits within which they shall exercise their functions. Accordingly, the Central Government has enforcement machinery in the organisation of the Chief Labour Commissioner (Central). The respective Stat-Government also have similar machinery.

(b) Yes, Sir.

(c) Instances of payment of wages less than the prescribed rates of minimum wages have been detected in certain cases by the inspector appointed by the Delhi Administration. At the instance of the Inspector, 30 workmen of M/s. D.K. Agencies, Inderlok, Tri N^tgar, Delhi have got the arrears due to them. The Delhi Administration is taking similar action to
